Report from Wreningham` Last Wednesday` Coffee Morning.

We have met every month over the past year, although the numbers have dropped considerably. We will continue to run the coffee morning for the next couple of months pending my house sale.

A new co-ordinator will be needed after July in order to keep this running. Both Mary Fairman and Ian Dobson are willing to remain as helpers but do not want the responsibility of organising the morning.

Our regular three loyal villagers, who have been with us since we started, continue to join us every month. It would be sad for them if we had to close. Hopefully someone will step into the breach with new ideas as to how to engage with the village and make this a lively place for our people to meet.
